Your Eyes Require Attention

You should not neglect even the slightest indication of failing vision.
If your eyes tire easily, if they ache, smart or water, if you have pain in the eyeballs, or if, for some reason or other, there are all indications of failing vision and reasons why you should consult an optometrist. Think of the sorrow that would follow the loss of sight—then why neglect these indications?
Consult our Registered Optomet-rist at once, who has had many years of valuable experience and invariably gives satisfaction.
Have him thoroughly and scientifically examine your eyes. If glasses will not correct the imperfection he will tell you so.
Our prices—quality, workmanship and efficiency considered—are the lowest in the State.

Knights Templar Reception and Ball

Handsome Gowns Being Made All Over the State for the Season's Social Function that Promises to Eclipse Anything Held in this End of Connecticut in Many Years.

It is without a question true that anything undertaken by Columbian commandery, No. 4, Knights Templar, must be well done or not attempted at all. It is therefore not to be wondered at that society circles in this section have been anticipating for months the coming reception to be tendered to Right Eminent Grand Commander Eugene A. Hall of Meriden and his fourteen associate officers of the grand commandery of Connecticut, who are invited with their ladies, together with his excellency, Gov.
Frank B. Weeks and Mrs. Weeks, Adjutant General Cole and ladies, his honor, Mayor Charles E. Thayer, Eminent Sir Samuel D. Sherwood of Springfield, Mass., and numbers of other distinguished members of the Templar fraternity from Hartford, Providence, Springfield and Worcester, Mass.

To the members of Columbian commandery, No. 4, this is to be the home coming event of their temple career, for there are members of the local commandery in almost every state in the union, even as far west as Los Angeles, Cal.
With the unusual features already arranged there is promised a remarkably brilliant scene.
All military guests are requested to appear in the full dress uniform of their command, and this, with the handsome uniforms of the Templars, the evening gowns of the ladies, and the happy smiling faces of all amid the delicate and effective color scheme and electrical effects to be carried out by expert decorators from New Haven will unquestionably prove an unequalled and inspiring sight. Not in forty years have the members of the local commandery attempted anything of a social nature on this broad scale, and to a man the knights have entered into the spirit of the whole affair and are striving to outdo all previous efforts in this line.
There will be Hatch's full First Infantry band of Hartford in one of the army, and in the other end Prof.
Herbert T. Miller's orchestra under the peerless leader, the professor, himself.
It has been found necessary to erect a second tier of boxes on the north side of the armory for the accommodation of the public and strange as it may seem, they prove the best boxes in the armory, and though there are nineteen in all, all but eight of the number are sold, in addition to all the floor boxes, with the event three weeks away.

The members of the grand commandery of Connecticut holding official position who are invited with ladies are as follows:
Rt. Gr. Commander Eugene A. Hall of Meriden, Dep. Gr. Commander Wesley U. Pearce of Middletown, Em. Gr.
Generalissimo Charles L. Hubbard of Norwich, Em. Gr. Capt. Gen. Arthur D. Chaffee of Willimantic, Conn., Em.
Gr. Senior Warden Frank M. Scott of Danbury, Em. Gr. Junior Warden
George H. N. Johnson of Bridgeport, Em. Gr. Prelate Albert W. Mattson of New Haven, Em. Gr. Treasurer F. G.
C. Costello of Norwich, Em. Gr.
Recorder Eli C. Birdseye of Meriden, Em. Gr. Standard Bearer Arthur C.
Wheeler of Norwalk, Em. Gr. Sword Bearer William W. Frayer of Hartford, Em. Gr. Warden Cyrus Congdon of New London, Em. Gr. Capt. of the Guard Benjamin L. Coe of Waterbury, Em. Gr. Inspector Thos.
W. Morgan of Hartford.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR AT NORWICH TOWN.

emphasis upon the religious life. It is the element of religious obligation upon the C. E. society which is its life. The thing that we ought to do is the thing that we want to do. The C. E. has come the young people and challenged them with an obligation.
We emphasize the spiritual side of life—personal devotion to Jesus Christ —the keeping of the quiet hour—then going out into the world to be the Master. Simple testimony is another characteristic of our service. If one-tenth of our church members would go out to tell the story it would not be long before the world would come to Christ.

Learn to Speak for Christ.
Even in the Junior Endeavor the children learn to speak for Christ and to pray their simple prayers. They are the beginnings of our men and women and will be the leaders of the future in our churches, and they are learning to speak the helpful word. Yet in many places this training is neglected. The society of C. E. is not only given us the personal relation to Christ and the ability to work for him, but the members are being trained along lines of committee work.

Just a year ago I went around the world with Dr. Clark and found many missionaries who had their first impulse to work in foreign lands given to them in the missionary committee of our societies. In eighty denominations all over our land young people are being trained for service here and abroad.
I would like to bring you a message from Egypt and Japan—they are doing a work way over there that would make us ashamed. I attended the fourth world's convention of C. E. in Madras, India. Four thousand native Christian Endeavorers and four hundred missionaries from stations all over India and Ceylon were present. As I saw the changed faces I leader saw what the transformation of Jesus Christ means. In the conversation service they responded to their names in polite in thirty-one languages. The final sunrise service was held on a hill above Taga Mahal as we gathered there I looked down and saw a mound of earth and in it a simple cross of straw, the emblem of a convert's new faith, telling of the love of an infinite God who could send Christ to die on the cross. The mist of the city rose and it seemed a prophesy of the day when India, Japan and China would come to Christ.

The Japanese bring to Christ's standard the same loyalty that they had for their emperor in the late war.
We are all one great human family.

Reception for Charles A. Goodwin Will Be Held at Wauregan House Next Wednesday— Rally Will Be Held Here on November 2d, as Re- sult of Decision of Committees.

Arrangements were completed Friday for two big events for the republicans of Norwich which will fittingly bring to a culmination the rather unique campaign work that has been done in Norwich during the past few weeks. At a conference held between the officers of the Goodwin-Lippitt club and the local republican committees a reception and rally were decided upon. The arrangements for the reception are in the hands of the officers of the Goodwin-Lippitt club, while the town committee will formulate the plans for the rally, but both organizations are to work zealously for the success of both events.

Reception at Wauregan House.
The reception to Mr. Goodwin and the different republican nominees will be held at the Wauregan house from 7 to 8 o'clock Wednesday evening, Oct. 26th. Mr. Goodwin will reach Norwich at noon Wednesday. From 1 o'clock until 5 he will be engaged in a conference with various state and local committees and candidates. The town committee has arranged to have Mr.
Goodwin make a short address from his automobile near the Ponemah store at Taftville at 6 o'clock. At 6:30 he will address the voters of Greenwich at some convenient location. From 7 to 8 he will be the guest of the Goodwin-Lippitt club at the local club house in the new parlors, which will

HALLOWEEN FESTIVAL AT METHODIST CHURCH.
Given by the Epworth League in Afternoon and Evening.

The vestries of the Trinity Methodist church presented a scene of great mar-riment Friday afternoon and evening.
The regular date of Halloween being unfavorable for its celebration by the leagues of this church, the event was anticipated by the young people's societies.

From 2 to 7 p. m. the Junior league celebrated to the enjoyment of all attending. The varied colored booths presented a pretty picture. The booths were capably managed by the young people as follows: Candy, Dorothy Wolf and Libbie Peckham; scripture cake, Blanche M. Porter; cake bower, Marietta Boyens and Nancy Colberg; lunch counter, Herbert Hooker, Norman Hines and Everett Eddy; beanu-stand, Harwood Dolbear; general store, Carl Hahn and Alfred Hartley.
The cookery stands were Hazel Purvis and Anna Hahn.

In the programme rendered from 5 to 6 o'clock the following did especially well: Allison Post, Leslie Miller, Lucile Gulle, Helen Woodworth, Mildred Barrows, Ella Burlingame, Donald Robinson, Hattie Gulle, Forest Gulle, Forest Lewis, Charlie Hadden, John Hanson, Anna Hahn and Little George Gulle, only two years old. Also Amy Monden, Natalie Macpherson, Little Virginia Woodworth, Elizabeth Peckham and charming Little Lorraine Macpherson.
Miss Martha E. Hanson sang a witch's song and Sarah Ladd gave a piano solo.

At 8 o'clock the Epworth league took possession of the scene with full Halloween fun. The celebration was under the direction of Miss Edith Hadden, the recently elected social directress.
Irvin C. Elmer was master of ceremonies, filling his office admirably.
The ghost who especially distinguished himself was represented by Miss Elizabeth A. Lane. Halloween refreshments were served.
